

MANDY

Musica e testo di Giuliano Montori

Everytime I see that face I know that I'm in trouble I don't know why we always find ourselves in this kind of struggle

Mandy anytime you offend me,
I can see your love
growing stronger like a tree
and striking hard just like a stick

My mind is blowing up trying to find an easy way out Every time we fought ourselves for love it's only a waste, a waste, a waste of time

Oh Mandy
anytime you offend me
I can see your love
and striking hard just like a stick

Oh Mandy
anytime you offend me
I can see your love
growing stronger like a tree
but I can't live without your lips
